11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

No. C 10-00547 CRB

12 Plaintiff,

ORDER AS TO CONTINUANCES OF FILING DEADLINE

13 v.

14 SAMUEL COHEN,

15 Defendant.
16 _____/

17 On November 18, 2011, the Defendant sought a four week continuance of his deadline
18 to file a Rule 33 Motion, representing that “Cohen will retain new counsel as soon as next 19 week.” See dkt. 297 at 1. The Court granted the Defendant a two week continuance,
20 explaining that this doubled the amount of time provided by the Rule, and that “[n]o further 21 extensions will be granted unless new counsel substitutes in by that date.” See dkt. 298.
22 Yesterday – the last day before the new deadline – the Defendant sought a further
23 continuance, representing that “Mr. Cohen has selected new counsel and will retain them this 24 week.” See dkt. 299. The Court granted this request so as not to prejudice the Defendant, 25 continuing the deadline to December 14, 2011. See dkt. 300. The Court writes to clarify, for 26 the benefit of both the Defendant and his existing counsel, that unless new counsel
27 substitutes in by December 14, 2011, the deadline will remain December 14, 2011. No

28 //

1 further continuances will be given.
